Muncie in Action Photo Contest

Grab your camera or sort through your albums for your favorite photos of the Muncie-Delaware County area and enter them into the Muncie in Action Photo Contest this summer. Photographers of every skill level are encouraged to participate.

“We’d love to see a range of photos capturing people enjoying our community as well as both our architectural and natural beauty,” said Traci Lutton, Project Manager for the Muncie-Delaware County Economic Development Alliance. “This call for photographs is being held to grow and diversify the Chamber’s collection of high resolution photographs to help with our marketing efforts.”

Photographs will be accepted through July 16, 2010. Entries will be judged by the photo contest committee. Prizes will be awarded to the top three photographs that best reflect our area and that are mindful of our marketing message. Top prize will be $150, 2nd place – $75, and 3rd place – $50.

A list of desired photo subjects or categories is included below. All entries that are submitted to the contest will become the property of the Alliance and may be used in their press kit, website, advertising, printed brochures, flyers, etc. For more information, contact Traci Lutton at (765)751-9126 or by e-mail at tlutton@muncie.com.

Please see contest rules for submission methods and image specifications.
